Go Ye --- And Preach

Dedicated To The Graduates of Manhattan Bible College who have given their lives as missionaries to needy souls at home and abroad.

Am I my brother's keeper? The answer to this question implies the need for missions. The prophets answered it with a yes as they served their people at home or in other regions of the kingdom. Jesus answered this question in a very affirmative manner by the way in which, by the death which He died. In the parable of the Good Samaritan Jesus illustrates the truth that any one who needs our help is our neighbor. In another parable Jesus taught that through serving humanity we serve Him. "Inasmuch as ye did it unto the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

The task of us all, the world mission of the church is contained in the Great Commission, "Go ye therefore into all the world, making disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you, and lo, I am with you even unto the end of the world."

World evangelism is the God-given task of the church. The New Testament presents the church as a missionary to the world. We must feel the deep sense of responsibility for carrying out the marching orders of Christ. The church exists to win the world whether we call it education, evangelism, or missions. Missions is the term we have applied to a method spreading Christianity. For the want of a better term we have called services offered to hungering humanity in lands removed from our own Foreign Missions. And the services rendered to underprivileged people in spiritual and physical need in our own country we have called Home Missions.

The Cross of Christ is the basis of all our mission work. The redemptive power in Christ's death was an important item. This is the goal of all missions—to bring the lost to Christ and Christ to them, to bring light out of darkness, to bring people to the realization of the abundant life which Jesus offers by filling their physical and spiritual needs.

Paul has often been called the first foreign missionary of the New Testament. He was willing to leave his home and travel through great difficulties in order that much of the known world of that time might know the better way of life.

The New Testament church strongly advocates missions. They have had a vision of the dream of God in regard to the world task. We are proud of the seven graduates from our midst who have seen the need and responded to the specific work of missions, and we pray that many shall follow their example. One of the number is serving in home missions, the others are serving on foreign soil. To these individuals we pay our high respect and tribute. They know the great value attached to each human soul. Their love for God has taken them far from us by distances but they are indeed close bound in the bonds of Christian service and fellowship.

Elmer Kile, one of the early graduates of the school with the class of 1933, is enlisted in home missions. He has served various churches. At the present time he is located in New York City where he ministers especially to the Jewish people. He has a chapel built on wheels known as the Go-Ye Chapel.

Mr. and Mrs. Harland Cary, graduates of the class of 1940, are at Eagle Pass, Texas, where they are operating a school for Mexican ministers. They had planned to go to South America but were not allowed to enter. They are doing a valuable piece of work for the Mexican people.

O. D. "Pat" Johnson, a graduate of 1945, is a missionary to India. He sailed to India in 1946; he now has his own station located at Jhansi, United Provinces. He is carrying on a general program of evangelism. In 1945 he returned to the States for a brief furlough and reorganization of the work.

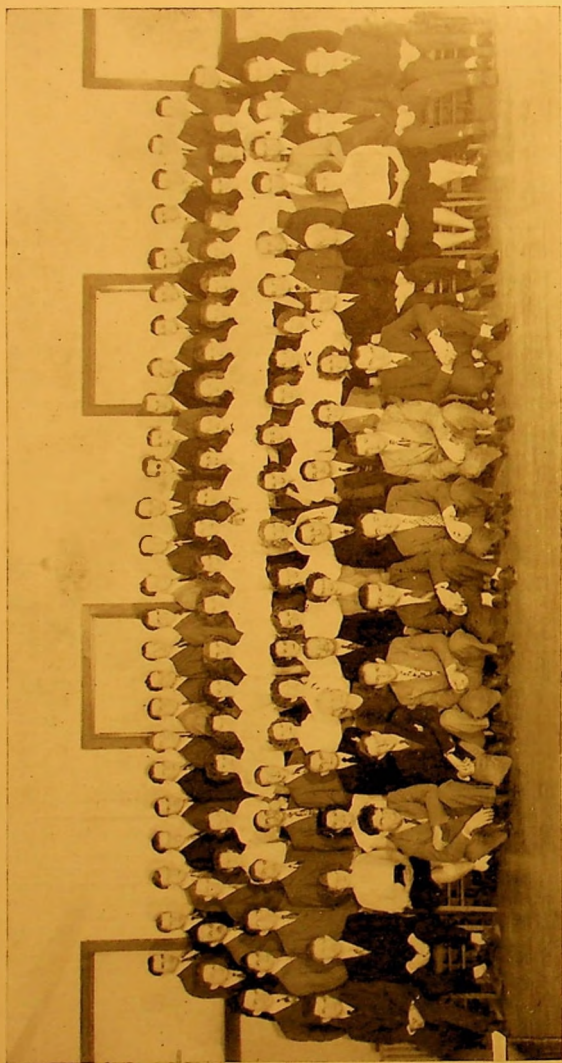

Rolland Sojodin, with his wife Gladys, a graduate with the class of 1943, represents us on the Chinese mission field. It was through the inspiration of a Chinese pilot during the war that they decided on this country for their field of foreign service.

George Beckman, a native Nebraskan and a graduate also of the class of 1943, graduated from Butler University. He and his wife are serving in Korea.

Hal Heimer, a graduate of the class of 1947, now in Butler University, is a missionary recruit to the Belgian Congo. When he has received the proper training he will go to that region.

Warren Dittmore, among the class of 1941, has gone to his heavenly reward. He was married to Isabel Maxey who had served one term in Tibet. After graduation from Butler University the Dittmores went to Tibet. It was Warren's privilege to serve only a few weeks in the territory in which he longed to teach the message of Christ. He was stricken with a fever before his work was scarcely begun. His wife continues his work on the field. A piano in the chapel of M. B. C. has been dedicated as a memorial to him and his love for the Christ for whom he so bravely died. To him we pay special tribute.

"And they that are wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that call many to righteousness as the stars forever and ever." Daniel 12:3.

Manhattan Bible College Biography

In 1927, a Bible College was founded in Manhattan, Kansas, by Eugene Bible University of Eugene, Oregon. For two years this college remained a child of Eugene. In 1929, all property belonging to the Bible College founded by Eugene in Manhattan in 1927, was deeded by the Eugene Bible University, to a new corporation, known as Christian Workers' University.

Manhattan Bible College came into being on June 20, 1930, when Christian Workers' University deeded all of its holding to Manhattan Bible College, which was chartered on that date, and which institution has functioned from that date to the present.

1937 was a sad year for the school, when due to depression and drouth, the Bible College was forced to give up the property which was deeded to Manhattan Bible College in 1930. The school was not one to give up in despair, but in 1940 started a building fund which reached a total of $17,000 by September 1, 1943. Negotiations were started for the purchase of the above mentioned building. An agreement was reached which enabled the Bible College to buy this building at a cost of $26,500. Immediately the Bible College began a campaign to raise an additional $9,500. This building was purchased on a two year's contract. However, the financial response was so excellent that only four and one-half months were necessary to obtain the money to receive the deed to the property. Five years ago the Bible College purchased the frame building in which school was held during the period when it did not have possession of the above mentioned building.

The school is well located both from the standpoint of convenience and that of cultural and educational opportunities. Both the Union Pacific and the Rock Island Railroads pass through the city as well as U. S. Highways 40 and 24. The school is within reach of five hundred congregations to which we may look for support, and which adjacency makes an excellent outlet for the services of young men and young women who are ready to go out from the school over the week-end to preach. Perhaps no other college among "us" is so strategically located. Just across the street from Manhattan Bible College stretches the campus of the Kansas State College of Agriculture and Applied Science. This offers a wonderful opportunity to students of both schools for a well-rounded, Christian education.

The purpose of Manhattan Bible College is to train preachers and other Christian workers who will be loyal to the Christ, and to his Church, as presented in the Scriptures.

Manhattan Bible College seeks to be Christian in the fullest meaning of the term. The College believes that the final and only authoritative statement of the Christian Religion is in the New Testament.

Christian conduct is expected of all students in the College. Any student found unable to conduct himself as a Christian in the College, community, or elsewhere will be dismissed from the College. Just be a Christian gentleman or lady and you will be acceptable to the institution. Mt. 7:12 is an excellent guide. It sometimes becomes necessary to apply some practical applications to the general rule of conduct. All students are required to attend Sunday Church service.

During the twenty-two years of the history of the Bible College one hundred fifty-seven people have been graduated from her halls. Many of this number are preachers, others preacher's wives, some missionaries, and several are outstanding Christian leaders.

We are assured that this is merely the introduction to the history of a great institution, which has as its aim, to train young men and young women for loyal consecrated service for Christ, who is the King of Kings and Lord of Lords.

OFFICE SECRETARY

A familiar, and very pleasant, sight around this institution of higher (?) learning is Phyllis Sears, M. B. C.'s efficient secretary. Phyllis, by the way, is a foreigner, being a native of Nebraska. She graduated from the Bible College with the class of 1948. She was Phyllis Moomaw then, receiving an A. B. degree for her efforts.

It is because of her that the school remains the well organized unit that it is for she is in charge of carrying out all the details of administration. She handles all of the correspondence and takes care of the finances, such as taking in the money for the meal tickets of those who eat at "Tillie's" and the monthly room rent of those who stay at the dormitories (she is more than likely in charge of the finances at home too, because she makes the money while her husband, Harold, goes to school). Her greatest virtue is her infinite patience. She never gets (blows her top) angry when someone comes in about the time she is ready to close the office. By the way, you might ask her what happens when she gets in too big a hurry to lock the office and leaves her key inside! One of the more minor (but nevertheless important) of her many tasks is to ring the bell for class. So if you are kept in class by the lack of a dismissal bell, you know who to see.

THE LIBRARY

Manhattan Bible College has every right to be proud of her library facilities. With 8,000 or more volumes on selected religious and related subjects, a real challenge is offered to the student. The library room has been nicely furnished by some of the churches and loyal Christian friends. There are always helpful librarians at the checking desk to assist the students. Mrs. Kenneth Storer has been head librarian for the past six years, being well qualified and capable for her work. She is ably assisted this year by Miss Mabel Hakes. In an emergency, Mrs. Fred Paxton, Sr., or Mrs. Lloyd Taylor are able and willing to help out. Besides this, across the road on "the Hill" is the large Kansas State College Library with its extensive services which is available for use of M. B. C. students.

CHI SINGERS

A new musical ensemble has been appearing this year known as the Chi Singers (pronounced "key"). Chi (X) is a Greek letter, the first in the Greek word for Christ, and is often used as a symbol for Christ's name. Therefore, the "Chi Singers" have adopted as their motto, "Chi stands for Christ, and so do we."

Their program includes ensemble numbers, quartets, trios, and instrumental specialties. The entire ensemble consists of four male and four female voices.

and on the assembly program at the Bible Col-

This group has appeared in chapel services lege. The primary purpose of organizing was to use the ministry of music to preach the Word to those churches which are at such a distance as to make the taking of the full choir impractical. However, the group has sung before various local civic organizations, and takes any opportunity to spread the good news of Christ in song.

CHAPEL CHOIR

MUSICAL MINISTERS

CHI SINGERS

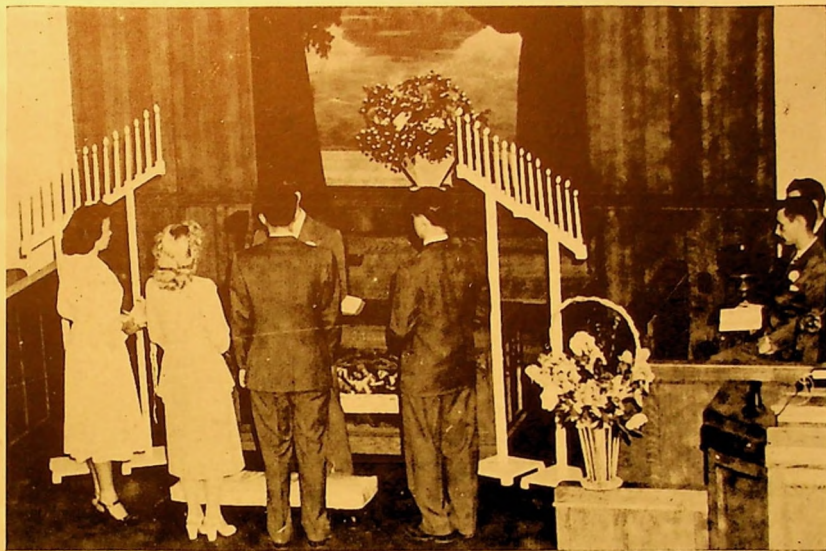

The chapel choir this year has been trying to do as Paul says in Eph. 5:19, "Singing and making melody to the Lord with all your heart." We have given thanks to God in song and have given our heart in doing it. Our ministry in music this year has been only in the Wednesday night chapel services. There we lead the whole assembly as we sing our hymns and spiritual songs, and sometimes share a musical message with all gathered there. We are working on an Easter cantata which is presented on the Wednesday night before the vacation, and, we plan also to give special music for M. B. C. day and commencement. The music for the cantata and the new choir robes for the additional members of the choir have been bought by the offerings taken at the Wednesday evening services. We are grateful for them and want to use them for the Lord. Our director is Wilford Lown, and accompanists have been Lois Anderson and David Cone. Our work in music has been great to each of us who has shared in it, and we look forward to even further exaltation this year and next.

Mountain Top Moments

Moments of Inspiration

Besides the richness of spiritual depth which issues forth from the class rooms, the weekly chapel services, the daily devotionals, there are other activities of fellowship and spiritual development which lend toward our inspiration in being a part of the M. B. C. family.

Often the radiating smiles are seen on the faces and joy in the lives of those who have found their partner who will serve beside them in the service of Christ. We share with them their joy and their dreams. Many of the weddings take place here in Manhattan either at Valerius Chapel or in the sanctuary of the First Christian Church. It is always interesting to see the various reactions of the President in his usual custom of teasing the bride.

Probably the most important social event of the year combined with a program of inspiration is the All School Banquet held in Kohler Hall of The First Christian Church each spring. Last year the theme was "Cast Your Nets." Decorations were made up pertaining to fishing. In the absence of Dr. Myers of Kansas City, Professor Lowm gave a message challenging us to "fish and catch men for Christ."

Another medium of inspiration has come about through the assembly period which is held once a week on Thursday mornings. This was a new activity this year. Various types of programs were presented from those of the serious nature to those of the lighter side of life. Each class and organization has had the responsibility of a program sometime during the year. Some of the main programs were in the way of outside speakers such as: Charles Railsback, missionary to Alaska, who enlightened our vision of the service to be rendered there; Ray Zack, an Indian from Washington, presented the needs of his people; Dr. E. K. Hidgon, Director of Oriental Missions, presented the requisites for a good missionary—(1) Physically sound, (2) Emotionally stable, (3) Spiritually compelled, (4) Socially sensitive and (5) Intellectually alert. A film was presented on how to write a theme step by step. Another was presented on "Visitation Evangelism."

At least once a year some outstanding speaker is invited to spend three or four days with us to share their experiences with us, and to guide and discuss our problems. This year W. R. Walker of Cincinnati spent the week before Easter with us. It was a challenge and a blessing to those who went out over Easter vacation to labor in their respective places of service.

How Shall They Preach Except They Be Sent?

Each year, for the past few years, a day has been set aside in the first of the month of May, and called M. B. C. Day. It is a day for putting the college before the people of the churches. Invitations are sent out, and all those from the churches interested in the Bible College come to Manhattan for a day of fellowship and Inspiration. They have opportunity to visit the college, attend the special services of that day, and get acquainted with the students and faculty at the picnics and activities. This day is sponsored by E. T. A., one of the men's organizations of M. B. C. in the hope that others will be attracted to the work of the kingdom, and prepare for a life of full-time service to Christ.

Athletics

If anyone thinks that M. B. C. boys fail to create a sweat, he should see them in action on Monday afternoons and then about once a week when they engage in competition with other small colleges, town teams, and the like. It is good for men to draw away from the grind of studies at various times to build their physical bodies. The basketball team this year has not won so many games but it has worked hard, and thereby derived great satisfaction and enjoyment from participating. We lost A. J. Ives at midseason and will lose two more by graduation this spring, nevertheless there are enough underclassmen to make the prospects for next year look bright.

As soon as Mother Nature sent the warm sunbeams to kiss the earth to make everything warm and green, the baseball gang was right in the midst of it all. The games were lots of fun. Next to basketball — baseball is best of all!

Tischhauser Hall

All the students who eat in the M. B. C. Dining Hall know how important it is to them and M. B. C. It offers an opportunity for students to eat home cooked food at a reasonable price. The girls can work out part of their board also.

TISCHHAUSER DINING HALL
SOMETIMES REFERRED TO AS, "TILLIES"

MRS. THIELMAN AND DELBERT

There is a warm fellowship among diners which would not be possible elsewhere. Here the boys and girls have a chance to become better acquainted and often this friendship blossoms into a romance with wedding bells as the climax.

Many improvements have been made, both in the kitchen and in the dining hall. A new double sink with built-ins was added to the kitchen and a large cupboard was built in the dining hall to allow storage space for food. The two rooms were also papered. After all these improvements were made, we were given a Grade A rating for our Dining Room.

The presence of our congenial cook, Mrs. Eva Thielman, who presides over the whole, adds the cheery home touch to the atmosphere.

Devotional Life

In all paths life may take we must seek out God in whatsoever we do in order to be servants of Him wherever we are. Especially those times of discouragement are the means of renewing ourselves with our Redeemer's strength. In our studying sometimes we grow discouraged too, and it is then we try to do as Paul tells us in I I Cor. 4:1, "Being engaged in this service by the mercy of God, we do not lose heart." In the midst of our study life we take the opportunity of devoting ourselves to God. Of course, we study Bible subjects most of the day, but this devotional time we set aside for the worship of the One whom we serve by our study. The devotional life of the school is especially important to us as a group, for there we are bound together anew—not scattered here and there as in classes throughout the day—bound by common love we have for the Christ.

The devotional life can be seen in several places among us. Each morning at 9:45 we who want to gather in the chapel and listen to the Word of God read to us along with the thoughts of the leader. Here we are able to bow our heads and worship while the organ music plays. Sometimes special music also is given for our worship. The drawing apart for a few minutes each day is just how we all can draw closer to God. In our everyday life we can get so busy and so deep in things that we may not take time to pray, but to draw close to God we must draw our attentions away from things and place it fully upon Him and we pray and meditate. We turn to God at times of joy and victory, as I Thess. 5:16 says, "Rejoice always," and at times of disappointment we can each look to II Cor. 4:16-17, "So we do not lose heart . . . for this slight momentary affliction is preparing us for an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison."

Other places show us the devotions in separate groups, but the highlights of each week comes on Wednesday night when we all gather with our friends to worship God as we sing and pray. We experience in this service true fellowship with Christ and with our brethren. The fellowship as Paul describes it throughout his writings as a "partnership" with Christ and because of this, a partnership with fellow-Christians. As we sing together our hearts are lifted, for seldom is singing found any better than of Christian young people. Then as we meditate and pray together, we can place the cares and anxieties in Jesus' hands to be taken care of by His able strength. Then comes the preaching and we receive the message, as all do whenever we gather in the Lord's house to hear what God has to say to us through His minister. We preachers must be preached to, for we must be "refilled," as does a vessel that is continually drawn from, as we are when we go out to preach. Those who preach to us may be visiting speakers, faculty members, or perhaps one of the senior students who wants to share a message with us before he leaves our midst.

Just behind the pulpit hangs a large picture of Salinan's "Head of Christ." This portrait has come often to be the center of prayer and thought, for as we sit and listen to the Scripture or a poem we cannot but see how vividly expressions of Christ have been portrayed in this beautiful painting. Through it we may come to understand more fully and love more deeply our Saviour. In this way we are "looking to the author and finisher of our faith," Heb. 12:2.

When we have drawn closer to God in these and other ways our lives are made better, and easier in the way of the Master when we go out, "making love our aim" (I Cor. 14:1), to teach men the vital thing in each life is the mode of life Jesus taught and lived. The life we seek is that life for which John wrote his Gospel: "these are written that you might believe and believing might have life in His name," and the life Jesus defined in His prayer, "and this is eternal life, that they know thee the only true God and Jesus Christ whom thou sent," John 17:3. This is the life we all seek for and the life we may find if we believe on Him.

C. he has contributed greatly to the Music Department, singing with the Men's Quartet as well as the choir. He has preached at Sulphens Mill, Winchester, and Havenhill where he is ministering at present. His future plans include graduate school as soon as possible.

MAURICE BIGGER was born November 30, 1918, at Pacific, Washington. His home church is Cornell Church of Christ, Wexford, Michigan. He graduated from the high school at Buckley, Michigan. Before coming to M. B. C. he was a farmer and attended Michigan State College two years. He was a Radio Mechanic for 4½ years with the Air Corps. He has preached at Circleville for 2½ years and at Soldier 9 months. His specialties since being in M. B. C. have been Ping Pong and baked apples. (Girls, ask Maurice how to bake apples.)

MARY BENSON was born in Abilene, Texas, on August 4, 1923. She graduated from Baird high school, Baird, Texas (not to be confused with Bayard, Nebraska, from which her sister Dorothy graduated). Besides attending Dakota Bible College for two years, she worked in an office. During the summer of 1947 Mary did missionary work with Elmer Kile and the "Go Ye Chapel" in New York City. While in M. B. C. she has assisted in several evangelistic meetings, leading singing and playing her accordion.

BONNIE LEE BRIGGS was born in Wray, Colorado on October 29, 1926, and went to school and church in Lamar, Colorado. She enrolled in M. B. C. after a year in Phillips, and has taken an active part in school affairs. She served as President of Student Volunteers in 1947. A talented musician, Bonnie is well known for her solo as well as group singing. She has directed singing in at least six evangelistic meetings as well as numerous song services.

JACK CLOUGH, who was born in Forgan, Oklahoma, August 24, 1922, graduated from high school in Arnett, Oklahoma. During the war he served for three years in the U. S. Navy, after discharge enrolling in M. B. C. He changed his mode of transportation from sailing to motorcycle riding. He and Beatrice Womack, an M. B. C. freshman from Junction City, were married on October 22, 1948. Jack has served churches at Princeton, Wall Street, Centropolis, and Goff. His ambition, he says, "is to preach the gospel."

ORVAN E. GILSTRAP was born January 8, 1917, at Claflin, Kansas. A man of many and varied experiences, he has been a farmer, chauffeur, wholesale auto supply company clerk, served in Infantry and Air Corps in the Aleutian Islands, as well as in Europe. Asked about his marital status, he replied that he is "happily married to the best woman in the world, no contrary arguments accepted." Mrs. Gilstrap is the former Mary Palmer, an M. B. C. student. They were married June 20, 1947. He attended Kansas State Colleges at Fort Hays and at Manhattan, studying engineering. "Gil" has been Junior Class President, active in C. V. L. and has sung in the choir and men's chorus. Points of ministry include White City and Pawnee Rock. His future plans include graduate study at Phillips University.

CHARLES GRESHAM was born in Eric, Illinois, on March 20, 1928. He is a "P. K." and so he has had church homes in Illinois, Indiana, Oklahoma, and Kansas. He graduated from the Hope Rural high school. He married Ruth Smith on August 3, 1949 and they have one son Michael Ross, who is one year old. Charles has sung in the choir and with the Gospel Aires; served as President of the Freshman Class and of E. T. A. and played basketball and baseball for three years. Charles found Greek so fascinating that he spent his Senior year as assistant Greek teacher. Charles has served churches at Valley Falls, Winchester and Clay Center. He plans to attend graduate school and to teach.

A. J. IVES is a tall farm boy who has contributed a great deal to the life of M. B. C. during his study here. He was born July 6, 1926, at Stockton, Kansas and there received his education prior to coming to M. B. C. His tenor solos have added great inspiration to many services. He has also sung with the "Musical Ministers," Gospel Aires Quartet, and Choir. Since the organization of basketball and baseball teams, A. J. has been a star player. He and Norma Hartford, an M. B. C. student from Omaha, Nebraska, were married January 15, 1948. A. J. has ministered to churches in Horton, La Harpe and Moran. Having earned his A. B. degree at the end of the first semester, he has already taken up graduate study in Phillips University.

NORMARUTH JACOBS came to us from Iowa having been born in Council Bluffs, Iowa, April 9, 1923. She graduated from Thomas Jefferson high school in Council Bluffs in 1941. After studying in Boyle's Business College, she did office work in Omaha. While in Wa-Shunga Christian Service Camp she made her decision to enter M. B. C. She has been prominent during the last two years in organizing groups of students for Sunday shut-in visitation.

EVERETT W. KEIFER has studied at the University of Colorado, Colorado State College of Education, University of Florida, and Emporia State Teachers College, in addition to 2½ years in M. B. C. He was born May 25, 1922; he was reared at Ault, Colorado. During the war he served in the Signal Corps with the U. S. Army three years, seeing active service in Europe. He and Mary Carper (who is also graduating) were married at Lebanon, July 30, 1947. Everett began his ministry in Inavale, Nebraska, going from there to Elmdale, Kansas where he has served about two years.

MARY KEIFER was born in Lebanon, Kansas.

January 7, 1927. She graduated from Lebanon high school, attended Nebraska Christian College one semester before coming to M. B. C. where she met and married Everett. She has also attended Emporia State Teachers College. Mary is receiving her Certificate of Christian Education this year but hopes to complete her A. B. while Everett does his graduate study.

IMA JEAN KIDD is an Oklahoma girl, having been born in Blackwell, March 31, 1927. However, she received her schooling in Milford, Kansas, and worked in the church there. Ima Jean has been very active while in school, finding time for much youth work in the Manhattan Christian Church, as well as serving on the Chapel Assembly Committee, Student Council and holding other offices. During the summer of 1948 she toured with the C. Y. F. Caravan in Missouri. Ima Jean will serve as Church Secretary and Youth Worker at Great Bend for a year or two, then go to graduate school.

ARLENE KING began her college work as Arlene Platt. She became a King on Friday, June 13, 1947, and still insists it was a lucky day! She was born May 21, 1927 near Ionia, Kansas. Her church home, as well as high school, was in Burr Oak, Kansas. Activities while in school included choir, orchestra, and gospel teams. Her ambition is to be a good preacher's wife.

PHILIP KING was born on the farm near Solomon, Kansas, December 8, 1927. After graduating from the Solomon high school in 1945, he entered M. B. C. to study for the ministry. Besides farming, he has worked at welding and other activities including the Student Cleaners. Phil, who met Arlene while washing dishes at camp, liked it so well that he decided to work with her permanently. He was the President of the Sophomore Class. He ministered at Dodge City and together they have served churches at Abbyville, and Morrowville, where they plan to minister until Phil enters graduate school.

EVELYN C. PARKS came to us from the Church at Grand Island, Nebraska. She was born near Juniata, Nebraska, February 20, 1919 and received her high school diploma from Wood River and studied 16 months at Chillicothe Business College, Chillicothe, Missouri. Evelyn has been secretary in the Army Ordinance Division, Grand Island, Nebraska; office manager of the Central Hardware, Roswell, New Mexico, and Pastor's Assistant of the Christian Church, Grand Island, Nebraska. She has been active in A. B. X. (formerly Student Volunteers) and plans to continue this missionary interest by serving as secretary in the home office of The Christian Missionary Fellowship, Manhattan, Kansas.

VIRGINIA JEAN SCHWARZ came to us from the Church at Marysville, Kansas, where she was baptized by President T. H. Johnson. Born December 21, 1923 at Marysville, she received her high school at the same place. Virginia spent the summers of 1941 and 1944 at Kansas State College and taught school for five years before coming to Bible College. Virginia was President of Sundoulai 1948-49 and a Student Council Representative 1947-48. She has been preaching at North Elm since May, 1948.

MELVIN EDWARD TOWNE lived in Canon City, Colorado, until he began his college work at Phillips University. As for dates, he was born February 20, 1926, spent two years in Phillips, but his most important dates were with Doris Hitt, graduate of M. B. C. whom he married July 14, 1947. Mel and Doris are very proud of their son, Summer Edward, born November 8, 1948. Mel has sung in the Men's Chorus, participated in basketball and baseball, and ministered to congregations at Lincoln, Kansas, and Sutphon Mills.

VADA RUTH WARD was born March 11, 1925, in Bonner Springs, Kansas. She and her family moved to Concordia, Kansas where she received her high school diploma in 1943. Following graduation she taught school for two years. Influenced by ministers who were M. B. C. graduates, Vada Ruth decided to enter M. B. C. in 1945. While here, she has sung in the choir and with the Gospel Aires Quartet. During Easter vacations she has been happy to assist in revival meetings with chalk drawings and other talents. Her future plans are not yet definite but whatever she does, or wherever she is, she'll be teaching.

WILLIAM J. VAUGHN was born in Wichita, Kansas, September 20, 1927. His church home is Broadway Christian Church from which he came to M. B. C. "Bill" received his high school diploma from M. B. C. in 1946. In addition to other activities, he has served as Senior Class President. His places of ministry include Vining, Rock and Hays where he has recently been conducting a radio program on Sunday mornings. Bill also plans to attend graduate school to further prepare himself for the Lord's work.

VERLA LEE WERTENBERGER is another ex-school teacher, having taught three years near Waterville, Kansas. She was born at Marysville, June 27, 1923, became a Christian at Barnes, graduated from Waterville high school and came to M. B. C. from Circleville. She plans to continue her travels with Brady Fowler, former graduate of M. B. C. Graduating with a Certificate of Christian Education now, she hopes some day to earn an A. B. Verla Lee has been quite active during her three years in M. B. C. in Sundoulai, A. B. X. and Student Council.

Christine House

Last year M. B. C. adopted a new organization officially known as "Christine House." To anyone around school it is either "The Boys' Dorm," or 1709 (Laramie.)

In the basement are two cozy apartments, making home for two families, the Wewerka's from Texas, and the Hughes' from Indiana.

On the second floor are six rooms, home for 13 boys from Kansas, Nebraska, Illinois, Missouri, and California. If you can imagine 13 boys in one house you can get a pretty good idea of life at the boys' dorm.

The Paxton family occupy the ground floor. Mr. Paxton being field representative for M. B. C., isn't home much of the time. Mrs. Paxton, besides doing the regular duties of mother and housewife, does an excellent job of keeping the upstairs clean, a job not easy with 13 boys to mess up the place. Besides that she is "Mom" to us all. She patiently listens to our many experiences of joy and sorrow. She is always willing to let us use the kitchen for popping corn or making candy, and the living room for, well — shall we say for entertaining our friends. Then on top of all this, whenever one of us is sick, she does all she can to make us comfortable. Really we are just one big happy family.

Junior Class

We are the Juniors and are over the half-way mark toward graduation. A year or so ago most of us thought that we were pretty smart but more and more we are becoming impressed with our own ignorance. We are grateful to the Bible College, to all who make it possible, and especially to our professors, not only for the opportunity to learn more of the Bible, God's Word, but also the encouragement and inspiration that have been so abundant.

We have had good times together as a class under the sponsorship of Lloyd Taylor, and the leading of our president, Paul Eckstein. During the first semester we had a party given by Professor and Mrs. Lloyd Taylor who also furnished the refreshments which included a tub filled with pop-corn. During the second semester we are responsible for the All-School Banquet with the theme, "Go Preach."

Eighteen of our boys are ministering to churches now and several of the girls are doing special work. Our prayer is that we, as a group and individually, may effectively serve our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Epsilon Tau Alpha

Epsilon Tau Alpha was organized on January 2, 1940. This year's sponsor, Lloyd Taylor, is one of the charter members. Since that time it has functioned as one of the outstanding organizations of the school.

It is the organization of M. B. C. which stimulates wholesome and virtuous activity among the men of the school. Epsilon Tau Alpha, the Greek words for hope, truth and honor, are the principles upon which this group builds its activities. It not only serves to enrich the lives of the men but gives them a greater understanding for their ministry. Its program for the year has included debates, guest speakers, and a moving picture.

This year as in previous years E. T. A. is sponsoring M. B. C. Day and the college annual known as the "Mabico."

Officers for the school year 1948-49 are: Gene Mallett, president; Alvin Daetwiler, vice-president; Dean Burton, secretary and treasurer; Don Jewett, council representative.

A. B. X.

This is not a new organization, just a new name for the Student Volunteers. The Alpha Beta Chi stands for the name: "Ambassadors of Christ the King." The Student Volunteer movement is an organization among the secular universities, and Bible Colleges have been asked not to carry the same name for their organization.

This year, our sacrificial banquet centered around a part of a neighboring state: the South-eastern corner of Oklahoma. Harold Dunson was the guest speaker. He works in the Kiamichi Mountain Indian Mission.

The young people seen in this picture have some time or another, been thinking about work on the mission field, here or abroad. Several have already gone out. With your encouragement, prayers, and the hope that our zeal will continue to grow, we will soon arrive at the destinations that we have been thinking about.

In order to have a definite project, we have decided to be the living link of the Indian boy, Freddie, whom Pat Johnson has thought to be a good prospect in evangelistic work. This kind of work brings us closer to the mission field.

"Lord, lay some soul upon my heart and love that soul through me, and may I nobly do my part to win that soul for thee." This closing hymn of benediction and our theme song, "We've A Story To Tell To The Nations" silently encourage us to take up our cross and follow Him.

Special Students

Special students are those who, for some reason, are not taking a full course. Some are young people completing their high school work, some are married girls and others are mothers who have a desire for more knowledge along the lines that will help them co-operate in the work of their husbands.

They are taking from one to seven hours credit and they may be working for a Certificate of Christian Education or gradually have enough work to apply on a full course.

No regular meetings for election of officers or social gatherings were held during the year. President Johnson is the sponsor.

Summer School

Summer school of 1948 brought together these Christian friends in Christ who might "Study to show themselves approved unto God, workmen that needeth not to be ashamed handling aright the word of truth."

The subjects offered were Ancient Classics, World Christianity, and Hermeneutics. Lloyd Taylor was the professor who instructed these classes. By beginning at 7 o'clock in the morning, we were able to meet in the coolest part of the day for classes, this also gave the students opportunity to work or study in the afternoon.

Phyllis Moomaw, our office secretary, left us being just a single girl and came back Mrs. Harold Sears.

Those attending summer school are as follows:

Pardee Hall

THE DORM

At 1409 Anderson stands a house known as Pardee Hall which is a home for twenty-four young girls preparing for full time Christian Service and striving to serve Christ by their everyday lives.

The girls were greatly delighted last fall to find four new rooms added, a new bathroom, and a spacious storeroom. Miss Mable Hakes came this year to be our housemother. Her presence and guidance has added to our fellowship and growth in Christ in the dormitory.

Peggy Hoffman was elected as President during the second semester. Lois Anderson is Secretary and Treasurer. Ima Jean Kidd has served as Student Council representative. The fellowship together in the dining hall, the moments of inspiration during devotions, the chats in the rooms and bathroom and the skating party all add to the life of the dormitory and can not soon be forgotten by the participants.

MAGNAVOX STAFF

This has been another busy year for the Magnavox Staff. Since it was the voice of the students at M. B. C. they have tried to make it their very best. Through news items, editorials, and some items on the lighter side of life, we've made it a variety pack!

The staff has been quite large, enlisting the help of the whole student body. Sue Runyon, freshman class reporter and artist, left us a little short-handed the first of second semester, but Shirley King came to the rescue with some outstanding work. Goldie Foils and Jeanine Jones were also helpers first semester, but were not with us second semester. The Editor's faithful assistant was Don Claggett. Dean Hinds, our sponsor and advisor, helped keep us in line. Other reporters were Betty Jones, Lois Randall, Dorcas Bridge, Mary Benson, Marilyn Forbeck, Don Jewett, Darold Zwink, Marie Wineinger, Don Rock, and Peggy Hoffman. Our typists were Virginia Alberts, Joyce Kittel, Vera Swearingin, and Lois Anderson.

C. V. L.

One of the most unique organizations in the school is the C. V. L., a group composed of those who are veterans and followers of Christ. Membership is not limited to those enrolled in M. B. C. but to any Christian Veteran who will take an active part in the program of the League. The veterans are proud that they who were once in the service of their country now have the opportunity to be in service for their Lord.

The C. V. L. is happy to have had a part in the promotion of the spiritual growth at M. B. C. and to farther assist in this growth it took as its project for the year the designing, building and equipping of a prayer room which would be more conducive to prayer and meditation. This new room on the second floor adjacent to the office has been completed and is serving its intended purpose.

The group also has sponsored several social meetings where fun and fellowship were enjoyed, for they realized that there must be a time for relaxation and entertainment also. The C. V. L. has as its purpose the exaltation of Christ among the war veterans, the promotion of fellowship and the carrying out of projects selected by the organization.

The officers for 1948-49 were: Commander, Nelson King; Executive Officer, Eugene Mallett; Secretary-Treasurer, Orvan Gilstrap; Student Council Representative, Everett Keifer; Chaplain, Harold Sears; Historian, Paul Eckstein; Sgt. at Arms, Jack Clough; Bugler, Wilbur White, Faculty Sponsor, Prof. Wilford Lown.

Sundoulai

Sundoulai, the girl's organization of the college, is in its ninth year of organization.

The Big and Little Sister plan was carried out again this year. Before school began, each of the old members received the name and address of a new girl in school to whom they wrote letters of welcome and introduction. When school began, they helped their Little Sisters become acquainted with the college, its activities, and the town of Manhattan.

One of our projects this year is visiting the shut-ins on Sunday afternoon. This service has been greatly appreciated by those called upon. Another project is the buying of a table for the kitchen at the college. Mr. and Mrs. George Beckman of Japan, were chosen as our missionaries for this year.

The girls bring their fancy work, mending and other sewing and work on it during the meetings.

Some of the program features have been: a talk given by Mary Gilstrap on her work as Youth Director and Church Secretary at Great Bend; Appreciation of Poetry; A talk given by Miss Hakes on her work as guidance supervisor at the Industrial Farm; helps for Daily Vacation Bible School; and the Valentine meeting. "I Married a Preacher." Personal experiences were related by some of the minister's wives. Sundoulai also sponsored an assembly service.

Officers serving this year are: President, Virginia Schwarz; Vice-President, Estrell Mallett; Secretary-Treasurer, Helen Bridwell; Student Council Representative, Verla Lee Wertenberger; and Sponsor, Mrs. T. H. Johnson.
